

Miller & Rhoads.

Miller & Rhoads.

This Store is particularly an Easter Store this week.

This P. N. Corset is $1.00.

Notice, please, the graceful lines and well fitting effect that the garment has—and that's exactly the way it will look on you, particularly if you're a medium figure.

It's made of English coutil, light weight, Princess hip, trimmed with Val. lace and ribbon, has a cork covered protector in front, and the aluminum boning prevents rusting.

One dollar is well expended on a Corset of this kind.

Fanny Pyrographic Outfit, $5.00.

Something entirely new—doing away with the alcohol lamp which has always been an objection to the old style outfit.

In its place is a metallic box filled with asbestos, on which is poured two or three ounces of benzine through the top, which unscrews.

The box has an inlet for air and two outlets—one for gas to keep up combustion in the platinum point of the burner and the other for a blow pipe blast to ignite the burner.

Impossible for any explosion to occur when using this outfit, and no fire risk.

The outfit comprises a burner of four interchangeable parts, and the burner can be taken apart without tools or any mechanical skill; double bulbs covered with extra good silk net heavy, rubber tubing and genuine cut cork handles.

Miller & Rhoads

JUSTICE JOHN HAD BUSY DAY

Disorderly People, Gamblers and Drunks Were Disposed of in the Usual Way.

Justice John had one of his old time docket to look into at the Police Court yesterday morning. He was charged with maintaining a gambling joint, and he with eight negroes, caught playing there, were asked to tell about it. It transpired that the eight took possession of Harrison's room during his absence and started a game of craps. Harrison said he didn't know anything about it and was let off, but the eight had to pay $2.50 each.

William Milton, colored, stole some grain from the Chesapeake and Ohio and went to the reformatory.

Phil Katsweller and H. Peeler paid $2.50 each for being disorderly in the Second Market.

W. P. Terry withdrew the security he had given for Edward Day's good behavior, and not being able to give further security on the spur of the moment, Day went down.

George Williams, colored, as a suspicious character, was placed under bonds for six months.

The case of Wash Daughtry, charged with shooting Thomas Cousins, will be heard on the 10th.

J. Y. Nunnally and C. H. Burruss were assessed $5 for fighting on the street.

W. H. Evans cut George Hutchinson with a razor and was sent on to the grand jury, and for carrying a concealed weapon he was assessed $5.

Beverly Godfrey was sent on to the grand jury for taking two barrels of flour from James T. Vaughan Co.

Renns Nelson and Richard Simmons paid $2.50 each for being disorderly and shooting eggs.

Edwin Sped, colored, will tell on April 15th why he is charged with taking $25.00 from Burt Asterlidge.

A few drunks also ran.

Property Transfers.

Richmond—Lucy A. and C. D. Carter to Albert S. Johnston, 100 feet on east side Laurel Street, 100 feet south of Cary, $2,100.

Joseph Harris and wife to Mabel D.

PASS IT ON

The True Way to Enjoy a Pleasure.

The way to enjoy a truth is to pass it on to others.

Coffee is a pleasure after having enjoyed anything to be able to see your friends enjoy it. A lady of Key West, Fla., believes in this. She says: "I am a great believer in passing a good thing along to others, and my faith in Postum is founded upon such truthful experiences that I take pleasure in passing it along to my friends."

"Coffee has had a very distressing effect upon me. I have long been a great sufferer from indigestion. Some time ago I commenced drinking canned milk with just enough tea to give it a flavor. Even this did not agree with me, and when a friend of mine a few weeks ago told me what wonderful results she had gained by giving up coffee and drinking Postum I bought a package to try."

"I quit coffee and tried the Postum. Have found it delicious and nutritious."

"My appetite, which was very poor, has increased wonderfully, and my indigestion has disappeared. I look forward to meal time and Postum Cereal."

"I know many people who have benefited by leaving off coffee and taking up Postum. One, a delicate elderly lady, suffered terribly from nervous headaches and other nervous troubles. She was on the verge of nervous prostration when advised to drink Postum. Instead of coffee, which she did with the result that her headaches have almost entirely disappeared already. Her doctor was surprised at the result and advised her to stick to Postum. She looks younger and healthier than in ten years past." This lady also goes on to give the cases and names of half a dozen other friends. One of these is a Cuban.

"Cubans are famous coffee drinkers, and this gentleman was no exception. His physician exhausted his remedies without any benefit. When it seemed he could live no longer, a friend advised him to shift to Postum. He dropped coffee and took up Postum, and he is now a living monument to the wonderful properties of this drink." Names furnished by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

MONUMENTS AT SHILOH

Twenty-two Dedicated by the State of Indiana.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

Senator Beveridge Was Orator of the Day and James Whitcomb Riley Recited Old Glory—Many Confederate Vets There.

(By Associated Press.)

SHILOH BATTLEFIELD, April 6.—Indiana dedicated and presented to the government to-day twenty-two monuments, erected at a cost of $25,000, in honor of the twenty-two regiments that State had in the battle of Shiloh. Two special trains and a fleet of passenger boats brought six hundred people from Indianapolis this morning. General Lew Wallace presided at the dedicatory exercises.

The monuments were presented to the State by Colonel James Wright, of the Indiana Commission. Governor Durbin presented the monuments to the government, and they were accepted by William Cary Sanger, assistant Secretary of War. The National Commission was represented by Colonel Joseph Patterson, of Tennessee. Governor Frazier, of Tennessee, was represented by General Gordon, of Tennessee. Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, spoke.

James W. Riley recited "Old Glory." Several thousands of the residents of this part of the State, including many Confederate veterans who fought at Shiloh, were present.

DR. STRICKLER PREACHES

An Able Sermon Sunday at Grace-Street Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Givens B. Strickler, of Union Theological Seminary, supplied the pulpit of the Grace-Street Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. W. H. Thompson.

Dr. Strickler preached a powerful and characteristic sermon from the 119th Psalm, eighteenth verse: "Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law."

In his treatment of the text Dr. Strickler began with a description of the longest of the Psalms, and showed some of its characteristics. His exposition and exegesis were thorough, explaining the nature of the "law" referred to and the blindness implied in the text.

Some of the "wondrous things" implied in the text were explicitly and graphically set forth, among them being God himself, the mystery of the Trinity, the incarnation, the Bible and the way in which God deals with His people.

The sermon was clearly and logically delivered, and evidently made a deep impression upon the large congregation.

Dr. Strickler, who is professor of theology in Union Theological Seminary, is reckoned as one of the ablest preachers in the Southern Presbyterian Church.

DR. HUTSON'S CHURCH

Has Now 1,532 Members in His Congregation—Dr. Moore Elected.

The Rev. J. B. Hutson, D. D., of the Pine-Street Baptist Church, of this city, is now the pastor of a congregation numbering 1,532 members. At the meeting of the Pastors' Conference yesterday morning Dr. Hutson reported additions during the month to the amount of sixty-nine, and he gave the total as above stated.

Dr. Gordon B. Moore, the new superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, was present at the conference, and was unanimously and heartily elected a member thereof.

The revival at the East End Baptist Church will continue through this week. The Rev. W. W. Sisk, of Manchester, is preaching with great effect. There have been fifteen conversions and about thirty-five professions of faith.

FOR FIREMEN'S RELIEF

Bill to Come Up Before Senate Committee To-Day.

The Bland firemen's relief bill will be taken up by the Senate Committee on Finance this morning at 10 o'clock, and a number of State firemen, including Captain R. L. Herbert, of Portsmouth, are here to appear before the committee.

Hon. Charles T. Bland, the patron, will have charge of the measure before the committee, and he and his friends are hopeful of getting a favorable report.

MAD-DOG SCARE

Dog Belonging to Mr. Hoen Dies of Hydrophobia.

Mr. Eddie Hoen's yellow dog is no more. It passed away from Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock, after suffering from hydrophobia, and was buried in the yard.

The dog was sick two days, and during that time it held possession of the back yard, the alleys in the neighborhood and the by-ways. Therefore, it is hard to say what may have happened to other dogs in the neighborhood. Many of them may have been bitten by the dog that bit Mr. Hoen's dog, and Mr. Hoen's dog may have bitten some on his own account.

The people in the neighborhood of Grove and Park avenues are, therefore, warned to get out of the way of all dogs for some time to come.

Dr. Hoen, at the University College of Medicine, has made a partial examination of the organs of the dog. Its stomach was full of chips, paper, and other indigestible things.

SHOULD NOT BE LICENSED

Rev. I. S. Boyles After the Saloon-Keeper's Again.

A gospel temperance meeting was held Sunday afternoon at the West End Christian Church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. The address for the occasion was delivered by Rev. I. S. Boyles, of the Randolph Street Baptist Church, who spoke on "Liquor Licenses, the Devil's Greatest Trap for Souls, or the Sin of Liquor License."

Among other things, Mr. Boyles declared that saloons should not be licensed at all, because the liquor traffic cannot be licensed without sin. Continuing he said in part:

"It remains to be seen how much moral courage our Legislature has, and how many of our representatives regard the voice of God and the real demand of the best citizens in the State and historic Commonwealth of Virginia. We are passing through a crisis. There was a long and heroic struggle, battle after battle, and then came the glorious victory. So with this battle against the liquor traffic."

"The dispensary is not the remedy. It is a burning curse and nothing but a sharp politician's tool, and the devil's trap for increased mischief and degradation of morals and manhood. It makes us shudder when we read in the papers of suggestions here and there, in the Legislature and elsewhere, that the best remedy is the dispensary. God save us from such a curse."

High license has been tried time and again, and has always failed. It may lessen the number of saloons, but not crime and sale of liquor."

LT. TAYLOR COMING HOME

Back from Active Service in Far-Off American Possessions.

Within a week or so, Lieutenant Charles B. Taylor, son of Captain Charles F. Taylor, will arrive in Richmond, after having spent several years in the United States service in China and the Philippines. Lieutenant Taylor has many friends here who will be glad to see him, and hear him relate his experiences in the far-off possessions of Uncle Sam.

At Laurel Street.

Rev. Dr. Henry E. Johnson, pastor of Laurel-Street Methodist Church, occupied the pulpit of the church yesterday. There were large congregations present at both services. Dr. Johnson spoke in the morning on "As in Heaven, So on Earth," and at night he delivered a powerful discourse on "Dry Bones Revived."

The revival services will continue during this week. Dr. Johnson, pastor of Union-Station Methodist Church, will do the preaching, and doubtless large numbers will attend the services.

Dr. Whittall's Fine Paper.

The Rev. W. H. Whittall, D. D., professor of philosophy in Richmond College, read yesterday before the Baptist Ministers' Conference his paper on "Homogeneity," recently produced for the benefit of the students at the college.

It is the uniform testimony of the conference that the paper by the distinguished minister was very fine and was heard by the conference. They are enthusiastic in their references to it, and have asked Dr. Whittall to consent to its publication in some of the Northern papers and magazines.

back yard, the alleys in the neighborhood and the by-ways. Therefore, it is hard to say what may have happened to other dogs in the neighborhood. Many of them may have been bitten by the dog that bit Mr. Hoen's dog, and Mr. Hoen's dog may have bitten some on his own account.

The people in the neighborhood of Grove and Park avenues are, therefore, warned to get out of the way of all dogs for some time to come.

Dr. Hoen, at the University College of Medicine, has made a partial examination of the organs of the dog. Its stomach was full of chips, paper, and other indigestible things.

SHOULD NOT BE LICENSED

Rev. I. S. Boyles After the Saloon-Keeper's Again.

A gospel temperance meeting was held Sunday afternoon at the West End Christian Church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. The address for the occasion was delivered by Rev. I. S. Boyles, of the Randolph Street Baptist Church, who spoke on "Liquor Licenses, the Devil's Greatest Trap for Souls, or the Sin of Liquor License."

Among other things, Mr. Boyles declared that saloons should not be licensed at all, because the liquor traffic cannot be licensed without sin. Continuing he said in part:

"It remains to be seen how much moral courage our Legislature has, and how many of our representatives regard the voice of God and the real demand of the best citizens in the State and historic Commonwealth of Virginia. We are passing through a crisis. There was a long and heroic struggle, battle after battle, and then came the glorious victory. So with this battle against the liquor traffic."

"The dispensary is not the remedy. It is a burning curse and nothing but a sharp politician's tool, and the devil's trap for increased mischief and degradation of morals and manhood. It makes us shudder when we read in the papers of suggestions here and there, in the Legislature and elsewhere, that the best remedy is the dispensary. God save us from such a curse."

High license has been tried time and again, and has always failed. It may lessen the number of saloons, but not crime and sale of liquor."

The Kentucky Cardinal.

Mrs. Frances Duncan Broadus, of the Albert Sidney Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy in Louisville, writes the following to the Kentucky Association:

"The desire of the Daughters to place at the table the works of all prominent Kentucky authors."

James Lane Allen, for whose book, "The Kentucky Cycle," the table is named, will be represented. Mrs. Rice's "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovey Mary" will be contributed by Mrs. Henry L. Stone, Mrs. Madison Stone, and Mrs. Wm. K. Stone.

Lane is very proud, and who has been highly eulogized in the spring number of the Book Lover, has sent over his book of delightful verse, each with his autograph.

The Richard Hawes Chapter, of Paris, Ky., have sent a number of Confederate song books beautifully gotten up, with the music and words of all the most popular Southern songs.

The first Friday afternoon of the bazaar, from 3 to 7, the Kentucky table will have a doll baby show and children are all invited to come and supply their desires from dolls of every size.

There will be, in addition, Confederate dolls, black mamies and pickaninnies and spick and span, up-to-date, twentieth century dolls in silks, satins and muslins.

At the Woman's Club.

At the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon Professor Foushee, of Richmond College, who made a beautiful address on Sappho, was introduced by Mrs. Arthur Lefroy, Professor Foushee had a very large and most interesting audience. His talk, which was most interesting, may be briefly outlined as follows:

The lecturer declared that the judgment of both ancient and modern times is that in the sphere of lyric poetry, Sappho stands supreme, unapproached by any poet in all the ages, and that the loss of her poems through the ban put upon them by the early popes is the greatest which we have to mourn.

She was the head of a literary group in the city of Athens, and the subject of her songs was Love, Love in the highest and purest sense.

The facts known about her life are few. She was certainly of noble birth. The story of her love from the beautiful Greek rock to cure her love for Asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

Social and Personal

Saturday, April 18th, will be Washington day at the Confederate Bazaar, about the hundred Washingtons, including the Confederates, the Daughters of the Confederacy, the District of Columbia, and the Charles Broadway Rouse Camp of Confederate Veterans, with a delegation of the Daughters of the Confederacy, under the chairmanship of Miss Nannie's 18th, the regent of the Solid South room in the Confederate Museum, visiting the bazaar on that day.

The visitors will reach Richmond at 12:30 P. M., April 18th, and leave the next day at 10 P. M. They will be met at Main Street Station by a citizens' committee, and escorted on the electric cars to the Masonic Temple, where they will meet the ladies of the bazaar and take their lunch in the restaurant.

After lunch the party to whom complimentary cards will be furnished, will play a visit to the Confederate Museum. From 10 to 7 P. M. they are invited to attend a reception, which Governor and Mrs. J. M. Montague will hold on Saturday in the parlors of the Executive Mansion.

The ladies of the bazaar will receive the Washingtonians at 8 P. M. the same evening, when General Fitzhugh Lee will deliver an address of welcome. The Lee Camp will keep open house during the time that the excursionists are here, and guests will be warmly welcomed at their hall, which contains the finest collection of Confederate officers' portraits in the United States.

Sunday many of the visitors will doubtless attend services at St. Paul's Church, where Lee and Davis worshipped, and where their memories are perpetuated by the beautiful memorial windows.

A Committee of Entertainment from Lee Camp will take pleasure in calling the attention of their visitors to the points of interest in Capitol Square in the city, in Hollywood Cemetery and to the battlefields around Richmond.

The Kentucky Cardinal.

Mrs. Frances Duncan Broadus, of the Albert Sidney Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy in Louisville, writes the following to the Kentucky Association:

"The desire of the Daughters to place at the table the works of all prominent Kentucky authors."

James Lane Allen, for whose book, "The Kentucky Cycle," the table is named, will be represented. Mrs. Rice's "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovey Mary" will be contributed by Mrs. Henry L. Stone, Mrs. Madison Stone, and Mrs. Wm. K. Stone.

Lane is very proud, and who has been highly eulogized in the spring number of the Book Lover, has sent over his book of delightful verse, each with his autograph.

The Richard Hawes Chapter, of Paris, Ky., have sent a number of Confederate song books beautifully gotten up, with the music and words of all the most popular Southern songs.

The first Friday afternoon of the bazaar, from 3 to 7, the Kentucky table will have a doll baby show and children are all invited to come and supply their desires from dolls of every size.

There will be, in addition, Confederate dolls, black mamies and pickaninnies and spick and span, up-to-date, twentieth century dolls in silks, satins and muslins.

At the Woman's Club.

At the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon Professor Foushee, of Richmond College, who made a beautiful address on Sappho, was introduced by Mrs. Arthur Lefroy, Professor Foushee had a very large and most interesting audience. His talk, which was most interesting, may be briefly outlined as follows:

The lecturer declared that the judgment of both ancient and modern times is that in the sphere of lyric poetry, Sappho stands supreme, unapproached by any poet in all the ages, and that the loss of her poems through the ban put upon them by the early popes is the greatest which we have to mourn.

She was the head of a literary group in the city of Athens, and the subject of her songs was Love, Love in the highest and purest sense.

The facts known about her life are few. She was certainly of noble birth. The story of her love from the beautiful Greek rock to cure her love for Asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.

The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend. The asphion is known to be a legend.